invited.

For Lenox, an early summer season is predicted, which if not as pretty as the autumn one, may yet be productive of a good deal of enjoyment. The wedding of Miss Lillian Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher M. Adams, to William S. Post will be celebrated in Trinity Church there on Thursday, June 1s. Lenox aiways makes a picturesque background for a wedding party, and the landscape in June is richer and more luxuriant if not so vivid and bright as in October.

Mme. Alban's friends in fashionable life in New-York will doubtiens be interested to learn that the singer, while in Germany recently, had the honor of a private audience with the German Emperor and Empress, both of whom expressed their adamiation for her. The Emperor's gift to Mine. Albani, on parting, was one worth possessing—a beautiful gold curb bracelet with a painted miniature surrounded with Illamonds and rubles. At the Court of Cobarg Mme. Albani was invested with an order, rately bestowed upon any artist, by the Duke of Cobarg. It is said that Sir Frederic Leighton was once honored with the same distinction, once honored with the same distinction.

TO DRIVE TO SHELBURNE FARMS.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR THE TRIP OF THE NEW-YORK COACHING CLUB.

The members of the New-York Coaching Club will start off on Wednesday on their drive to Shelburne Farms, Vt., where they will be the guests of Dr. W. Seward Webb. The details of the trip have been completed, and those who are to enjoy it are enthusiastic over the route laid out for the longest drive ever attempted by the organization. Several years ago the members of the Coaching Club were e guests of Dr. Webb at his large estate in Vermont, but at that time most of the journey was made in the cars. It is now proposed to cover the entire distance, 300 odd miles, by coach, and in Pioneer from the Hotel Brunswick promptly at 8:20 o'clock on Wednesday morning, with Dr. Webb handling the ribbons, which he will hold over the second two miles north of Yonkers, where he will surrender his seat on the box to A. J. Cassatt, who will be coachman until Sing Sing is reached, Webb's private car, Ellesmere, and another change of horses made. At North Croton, two miles north Webb's private car, Ellesmere, and another change of horses made. At North Croton, two miles north of Croton Station, which will be reached at 1:50 o'clock, F. K. Sturgis will take the reins and drive until Peekskill is reached, at 2:30 o'clock. Here another team will be waiting at the Fagic House, and it will be driven by Frederic Bronson to Gartisons, which is expected to be reached at 3:40 o'clock. Here Theodore A. Havemeyer will take o'clock. Here Theodore A. Havemeyer will take the lines and pilot the party to Davenport's Corners, which is to be reached at 4:25 o'clock. Another change of horses will be made here, and then Mr. Havemeyer will again take up the reins and drive on to Frishkill, where, after a fresh team of horses has been placed before the coach, Prescott Lawrence will be the coachman until Wappingers. Falls is reached, at 6:19 o'clock. Here Regimad Hives will take the ceachman's seat as far as Poughkeepsie, which will be reached at 7 o'clock. The party will pess the night at the Nelson House. The second day's drive will be begun at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, and at 7:15 o'clock in the evening the Ploneer will draw up in front of the Troy House, Troy, where the second night will be passed. The third day's journey will begin at 8 o'clock in the morning, with Dr. Webb again in the coachman's seat. Friday night the party will register at the Hates House, Rutland, Vt., and at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning the last day's journey will be begun. If all goes well the party expect to reach Sheburne Farms at 8 o'clock in the coachman's seat. Friday night the party expect to reach Sheburne Farms at 8 o'clock in the world on the Ploneer are Frederic Bronson, Reginald Rives, Dr. W. Seward Webb, Frank K. Sturgie, Theodore A. M. OCTAVE ROCHEFORT IN THIS CITY.

M. Octave Rochefort, a well-known French engi-Beer and the only living son of Henri Rochefort, the journalist, arrived in this city a few days ago, and is staying at the house of Miss J. May, No. 46 Irving Place. M. Rochefort, who is almost the ex-act counterpart of his father in face and figure, save the natural differences due to the disparity of ages, has come to America to study a number of improvements in machinery, which he hopes to have introduced in France on his return to that country. He also wishes to induce Americans to adopt several French inventions, one by Pasteur. M. Rochefort will remain in New-York several months, at least.

ports have been published in the daily papers in regard to the circumstances under which the proj-set for the formation of the Hardware Club originated, I have thought it best to give you the facts which was held at Sherry's, February 23, 1802, the proposition that a hardware club be organized was made by William H. Williams in his speech in response to one of the toasts. Prior to that occasion no suggestion had been made in regard to the desirability of an organization of the hardware trade in this city, and Mr. Williams is thus waitlied to the credit of first proposing it. The Mea, however, originated with Bruce Hayden, who lust before Mr. Williams spoke went to the speakers table and gave him the suggestion, which was received by the assemblage with much enthusiasm. The matter was then taken up by the trade, and after many delays the project has now been carried to completion in the organization and establishment of the Hardware Club.

The latter wrote that he thought he had the game temporarily. lenges him for a return match, the conditions of which to be in the main the same as governed the ception of the rule for the beginning of the match which Steinitz proposes shall be played in December.

On Lasker being asked whether he would accept the challenge he said: "Of course, I shall have to provided the conditions remain the same. I also think that a challenge from Steinitz should be considered first, and he is certainly entitled to the first claim. However, I shall consider the matter seriously. I have to settle some business in this city, and as soon as I get through I shall leave for Europe. I shall go to Berlin, probably, also to England and France, and I shall be ready for play at the proper time. I shall have no difficulty in getting backers for a new match, and it was I who proposed that if I had to play Steinitz again the first part of the contest should be played in Montreal, for I think the New-York chess players are counter."

A little confusion has been caused by the announcement that Miss Bessle Ronehill will sing at Tony Pastor's Theatre this week, and also in "The Skating Rink," at the Bijou Theatre. She will sing in both places, as the hours at which she is to appear are such as to allow her to go from one theatre to the other.

The roof garden at Koster & Bial's was for the season last night. It always rains when a roof garden opens, and it did last night. The Hungarian Orchestra gave a concert, however, and a good many people stood or sat under the awnings and listened. The roof garden will be all right if ever there is a clear evening.

Three new living pictures were added to the series at the Garden Theatre last night. They were Falero's "The Polar Star," Bougerean's "Cupid and the Butterfty" and "The Dancing Hour in the Temple of Dionysius." The last filled the whole width of the stage, and had about a dozen fourer.

FOOTE IS THE CHAMPION. HOBART, OF NEW-YORK, YIELDS TO HIM THE NEW-ENGLAND CHALLENGE CUP, WHICH

HE HAS HELD FOR A YEAR. New-Haven, June 2.—The last match for the $250 challenge cup offered by the New-Haven Lawn Club for the winner of the tournament for the New-England championship was played here this noon setween Clarence Hobart, of New-York City, winner of the cup last year, and Arthur E. Foote, of Yale

Hobart won the first set by brilliant cross-court play from the net. Three of Foote's games were, however, love. In the second set Hobart became inaccurate, and in his attempts to work his delicate plays drave the balls wide. Foote wan this and the next set by steady playing from the back line. Hobart made a grand raily in the fourth set, and won tive games straight. Foote was not able to overcome this lead and Hobart won. Foote won the final set and championship of New-England by his steadiness of play. Hobart was very erratic in his play and seemed to be exhausted. The score: Foote heat Hobart 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

THE PLAINFIELD BICYCLE TRACK OPENED. The new racing track of the Crescent Wheelmen at Plainfeld, was opened yesterday, and proved, as was expected, both fast and safe, though showers made it a trifle slippery. A big crowd was present, and the well-known "cracks" entered in the eight contests were unstituting in their praises of the new track. It is an egg-shaped course, with an elevation of one foot in four, on the turn. It has a 4-inch foundation of stone and cluders, and top-dressing of clay and gravel, and was built under the direction of F. A. Dunham, engineer of the Crescent Wheelmen, at a cost of $4.002. A hand-some grandstand and well-appointed dressing-rooms are features. present, and the well-known "cracks" entered in

OF COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The big dining-room of the St. Denis Hotel never held a joiller or happier crowd of young men than it did last night. The faculty of the Metropolis Law School had prepared a dinner to the members of the classes of '35 and '96, in place of the regular from two to three years, so the young men who expected to be graduated yesterday will have to follow their studies for another year, and the members of '96 for two years. Nearly three hundred young, embryo lawyers were seated at the long tables, and at the presiding officer's table the faculty sat. Roses red and roses white and smilax decorated the long tables, and an orchestra played whenever it got a chance between cheers. General Wager Swayne presided.

At 9 o'clock the speech making began, and was only interrupted when Professor Clarence D. Ashley, secretary of the Board of Trustees, rose to present the prizes to the honor men of the two classes. To Elmer S. White, '96, was awarded the first prize in his class. It was $75. Andrew L. Dalton, '86, took the second prize, $9. Mr. Dalton, '86, took the second prizes were divided equally between them. Each got $250. This stm will buy many law books. Honorable mention was given to Leonard J. Tyson, Julius H. Cchen, Victor S. Yarros and Alfred C. Topling.

There were fourteen speakers on the list of toasts and they all spoke. General Swayne made an admirable toastmaster and his witty introductions were halled with applause and cheers. "Our Parent Body—The University of the State of New York," was responded to by William L. Bostwick, "The Bench' received recognition from John H. V. Arnold, who told many funny stories, some of which were too old to have been out at 10 p. m. Max Meyer spoke for the "Alumni"; C. O. Smith had 'New Jurisprudence' for his theme, and George A. Voss spoke on "The Student." Then ex-Judge Van Hoesen spoke on "The Student." The sex-Judge Van Hoesen spoke on "The Student." The Faculty. "The Lawyer and "The School" was well treated by Professor Ahner C. Thomas, dean of the faculty. "The Bar," "Our Future," "Class of '35." The Faculty. "The Class of '55." and "Man a Social Being," were the other toasts, which were well hamiled respectively by Robert J. Fox, E. J. Ludvish, E. P. Shields, Professor Stewart Martin H. Murphy and William S. Young.

Then Mortimer C. Bishop presented pictures of the alumni to the faculty, and the merry young men separated.
